SGMM Partner Update

THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH & SHIELD; MY HEART TRUSTS IN HIM AND I AM HELPED. MY HEART LEAPS FOR JOY AND I WILL GIVE THANKS TO HIM IN SONG. PSALM 28:7

Issue 6 Vol. 19

We love you and bless you!

Mark you calendars now for the SGMM Word Conference 2005. November 12, 2005 at The Crown Center, Moore, OK.

Partners, continue to thank God for His Prophetic Word of Scripture and the 2005 Prophetic Word over God's people and this ministry this year. Get God's Word in your spirit and in your mouth's every day, claiming and praying his Will be done in all of us this year to His Glory and our good!

In Jesus Name,
Filese Hauser, SGMM CEO/Administrator

THE YEAR OF THE WIDENED EYE!
Word of the Lord to SGMM given at SGMM Word Conference 2004.*

So, you are angry. Now what?

Anger is the emotion of instant displeasure, which arises from the feeling of injury done, or the discovery of injury intended. In many cases, anger is from the discovery of the omission of good offices to which we supposed ourselves entitled or it is simply the emotion of displeasure itself, independent of its cause or its consequences. Like most other emotions, it is accompanied by effects on the body, and in this case they are of a very marked kind.

The arterial blood-vessels are highly excited; the pulse, during the paroxysm, is strong and hard, the face becomes red and swollen, the brow wrinkled, the eyes protrude, the whole body is put into commotion. The secretion of bile is excessive, and it seems to assume a morbid consistency. In cases of violent passion, and especially in nervous persons, this excitement of the organs soon passes to the other extreme of depression; generally, this does not take place till the anger has subsided, when there follows a period of general relaxation. The original tendency to anger differs much in individuals according to temperament; but frequent giving way to it begets a habit, and increases the natural tendency.

From the nature of anger, it is easy to see that it must be — often at least — prejudicial to health. It frequently gives rise to bile, fever, inflammation of the liver, heart, or brain, or even to mania. These effects follow immediately a fit of the passion; other evil effects come on, after a time, as the consequence of repeated paroxysms, such as paralysis, jaundice, consumption, and nervous fever. The milk of a mother or nurse in a fit of passion will cause convulsions in the child that sucks; it has been known even to occasion instant death, like a strong poison.

The controlling of anger is a part of moral discipline. In a rudimentary state of society, its active exercise would seem to be a necessity; by imposing some restraint on the selfish aggressions of one individual upon another, it renders the beginnings of social co-operation and intercourse possible. This is its use, or, as it is sometimes called, its final cause. (from McClintock and Strong Encyclopedia, Electronic Database. Copyright © 2000, 2003 by BibleSoft, Inc. All rights reserved.)

Anger is not evil per se, being, as love, an original susceptibility of our nature. If anger were in itself sinful, how could God Himself be angry? Paul commands the Ephesians (Eph 4:26) that when angry they are not to sin. "Paul does not forbid the being angry in itself, and could not forbid it, because there is a holy anger, which is the 'spur to virtue,' as there is also a divine anger; . . . but the being angry is to be without sin" (Meyer, Com., ad loc.). (from The New Unger's Bible Dictionary. Originally published by Moody Press of Chicago, Illinois. Copyright (c) 1988.)

Anger is sinful when it rises too soon, without reflection; when the injury that awakens it is only apparent; when it is disproportionate to the offense; when it is transferred from the guilty to the innocent; when it is too long protracted and becomes revengeful (Matt 5:22; Eph 4:26; Col 3:8) (from The New Unger's Bible Dictionary. Originally published by Moody Press of Chicago, Illinois. Copyright (c) 1988.)

In Proverbs men are dissuaded from anger (Prov 15:1; 27:4), and the "slow to anger" is commended (15:18; 16:32; 19:11). Christians are enjoined to put away the feeling of self-regarding, vindictive anger (Eph 4:31; Col 3:8), and to cherish no desire of personal revenge (Eph 4:26). Prov. 12:9, 13-16 - Better is the one who is slighted but has a servant, than he who honors himself but lacks bread.

THE YEAR OF THE WIDENED EYE!

Word of the Lord to SGMM given at SGMM Word Conference 2004.

The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips, But the righteous will come through trouble. A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth, and the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who heeds counsel is wise. A fool's wrath is known at once, But a prudent man covers shame.

NKJV

Prov 29:22-23 An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man abounds in transgression. A man's pride will bring him low, but the humble in spirit will retain honor.

NKJV

Prov 25:26-28 A righteous man who falters before the wicked is like a murky spring and a polluted well. It is not good to eat much honey; so to seek one's own glory is not glory. Whoever has no rule over his own spirit is like a city broken down, without walls.

NKJV

1 Tim 2:8 I desire therefore that the men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting;

NKJV

Eph 4:25-32 Therefore, putting away lying, "Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor," for we are members of one another. "Be angry, and do not sin"; do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil. Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have something to give him who has need. Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but what is good for necessary edification, that it may impart grace to the hearers. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

NKJV

James 1:19-20 So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

NKJV

Gal 5:16-21 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

NKJV

Col 3:1-11 If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth, for you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory. Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them. But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him, where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

NKJV

The problem with anger, especially as a result of offenses is that we feel justified in it. The resolution to the negative side of anger and its effects, physically, psychologically, and spiritually is forgiveness daily of those individuals, groups and circumstances which give rise to this emotion. Second, the casting of our hurts, cares and fears associated with the offences upon God as our Savior and Deliverer. Third, the willful rejoicing, over God, in the midst of the situation, that is, choosing to focus on God's goodness, wisdom and ability to turn wrong into a work of grace and the further development of our faith in God.

Anger, when it becomes sin is an affront to God, harmful to self and a stumbling block to others. If it becomes habitual, it is usually exaggerated by the influence of evil and can become a bondage as strong as any harmful addiction. This must be denounced and repented from.

Most anger, if lasting beyond the day and resulting in negative feeling toward others is usually the result of carnal thinking, not Godly righteousness. Anger, like any emotion which can become harmful to self and others needs to be submitted to God daily, so rage or ungodly wrath does not rule our lives.

Congratulations!

We had the joy this last month to attend our son, Donovan's, graduation from Veterinary School at Kansas State University in Manhattan, KS. He is now, Dr. Donovan Hauser and beginning his first practice in Veterinary Medicine in Sterling, CO. He and our daughter in love, Rachel & our precious little grandson, Talor moved to Sterling a few days following graduation. (Our sons, Donovan -right- & Jeff -left-) are pictured here acting silly at Donovan's graduation! They are both such a joy to our lives!)

Our son, Jeff, was licensed as a Local Minister in the IPHC this last week during our Annual IPHC Camp Meeting. He and our daughter in love, Lisa, continue to be in ministry at The Crown Center in Moore, Oklahoma with the Young Adults. Jeff is also the Sound Ministry Director for TCC and Worship Leader for our 11:15 AM Service each Sunday morning, as well as, 24-7 Worship Service monthly.

We are so proud of all of our children, Jeff, Donovan & Melinda and all that God is doing in their lives and the lives of their families.

Congratulations, Jeff & Donovan, in these accomplishments! We are so proud of you both!

We love you both so very much,
Dad & Mom (Rev. John & Filese)

The Captain's Corner

During the last war we were taught that, in order to obtain our objective, we had to be willing to be expendable.....We know that there is only one answer when our country demands that we share in the price of freedom--yet when the Lord Jesus asks us to pay the price for world evangelization, we often answer without a word. We cannot go. We say it costs too much....."

Nate Saint, a missionary martyred in the Ecuador jungle in 1956

Thank you so much dear friends and partners for considering the cost in working with the Lord in helping this ministry go forward to reach the lost and strengthen those already saved. We simply could not do it without you. The quote says enough if we just take a moment and consider what it means for each of our own lives and callings.

Please consider the following as you pray for SGMM this month:

- Complete healing and restoration for Filese following the accident
- Righteousness in the closing of the financial aspects of the accident
- New territories opening for appointments
- New Partners and Supporters
- The Word to continue to be manifested in all areas

We love you and appreciate you deeply. Remember, the joy of the Lord is your strength.

SGMM Prayer Captain

Our prayers are with the family of long-time friend Betty Doyle who went to be with the Lord this last month. It was so hard to hear of her loss but we praise God she is in her heavenly home now with her Lord. Please keep her husband, Ken, and her children, grandchildren and family in your prayers as they handle her loss.

Reaching out with God's Love

Many of you know SGMM has been supporting a little girl named, Leslie Isabella each month with a love gift that helps take care of her food, clothing, medical expenses and schooling as well as teaching her the Word of God.

SGMM has supported Leslie from the time she was four years old. She is now twelve and no longer in need of the program. We thank God for the love and prayers we were able to deposit into her life faithfully for the past eight years. Wherever she goes & whatever she does, God touched her life through SGMM and Children's International.

We thank God for her and will continue to bless her life, believing God to shape her life and destiny according to His Will and Word through Jesus Christ who is her Savior.

Now we have a fresh opportunity to be a blessing and support of a precious little girl named, Tania's, life. Praise God for all opportunities He gives us to share His love, grace and Salvation message!

The offering given each month for Tania will help provide her with food, clothing, medical expenses and schooling as well.

Pictured here is little Tania Priscila Ocon Jumique. She is two years old and lives in Guatemala City. Her native language is Spanish and she lives in a one room home that she shares with her mother, Brenda; her father, Julio, passed away. Her family's monthly income is $65.00.

Please add Tania and her family to your daily prayer time!

God Bless you richly for all you do for the Gospel,
Love in Christ,
SGMM Management and Board

SGMM Family friend, Art Micue went to be with the Lord this last month. We ask that you keep his wife, Joyce, in your prayers as well as his family as they deal with the loss of this loved one.
