THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH & SHIELD; MY HEART TRUSTS IN HIM AND I AM HELPED. MY HEART LEAPS FOR JOY AND I WILL GIVE THANKS TO HIM IN SONG. PSALM 28:7

Issue 9 Vol. 19

Precious Partners, SGMM Family and Friends,

Greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ!

Here we are on the eve of, "being on the road again for Jesus" and fall tour 2005. We are so excited to say the least, to finally be heading out in the Gospel Coach, for travel and appointments from Colorado, through Nebraska, the Great Lakes, Ohio, Pennsylvania, W. Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, and back into Oklahoma for the SGMM 2005 Annual Word Conference, November 12th. The Conference will be from 9:00am-4:30pm, and will be held at The Crown Center, 13300 S. Western, in Oklahoma City. PLEASE make plans to attend this inspirational day of worship & praise, fellowship, and best of all, great teaching of the Word of God from powerful anointed speakers.

This year we will also make available for families with children and infants, children's ministries and nursery care. This year will open several avenues of fresh things that the Lord is preparing for you, such as illustrated teachings, and a ministry skit speaking to our banner over the day, "Connecting to Network the Gospel" (I Corinthians 12:14-20.. 'But there are many members, yet all of one Body.' V. 20).

We also will have a Pastor and Wife presenting a 'team teaching' study that is sure to be a great joy and blessing. Please be looking for more information on this special day for our Annual 2005 Conference, Speakers, directions to The Crown Center Auditorium, motel opportunities if you desire to come in the Friday night prior to the Conference, and restaurants available for Saturdays lunch break, will be offered to you in this month and next months issues of SGMM newsletters.

The dress code is relaxed/casual, and don't forget to bring your Bible and note pad for jotting down some great "nuggets of gold" that will be released to us by the Holy Spirit, through the awesome messages and teachings that will be delivered during the day. There is NO registration fee for the Conference; however a love offering will be taken to the Glory of the Lord, and to help with the Ministry. PLAN TO ATTEND AND BRING ALL OF THE FOLKS, NEIGHBORS, FAMILY AND FRIENDS YOU CAN BRING WITH YOU AND PLEASE ANNOUNCE IT AT YOUR LOCAL PLACES OF WORSHIP FOR US IF YOU WOULD. EVERYONE AND ALL ARE INVITED AND WELCOME. After all, we are called to "CONNECT to NETWORK the GOSPEL" are we not?

We look to seeing you there. If you have any questions, or need more information than will be released to you and the public in the next coming weeks, concerning this divinely appointed conference time together, please feel free to contact the SGMM General Office by e-mailing, our Secretary Lisa at, info@son-grace.com or calling 405-370-7622 or 405-664-6488.

We love each of you so very much and appreciate your prayers for us as we move in the field of ministry for our Lord the next two months. We are believing for great and mighty things to happen this year, as we carry the Joy of the Lord to all we meet and have the opportunity to minister to on this great tour. We are thanking God now for souls, souls, souls and God's Spirit of Encouragement and Exhortation to be released through us and this ministry every where we go during our travels.

We look forward to seeing you November 12th and hearing all that the Lord has done and is doing in your lives, as we rejoice together.

Until then, know that you are very valuable to the Kingdom of God and to us, and we thank our Lord at every remembrance of each one of you!

Your Partners and Friends in Jesus,

Rev. John & Filese Hauser

The Captain's Corner

*Dear Partners and Friends,
Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior.*

God is so good, faithful, and true to His Word to us all. It is my prayer that you are being not only kept by the Lord but also receiving His bountiful blessings. We are so encouraged by the Lord here in the offices of SGMM as we anticipate and experience His presence and the manifestation of the Word on a daily basis. If you are receiving this newsletter, we urge you to understand that our prayers are directed toward you to receive the fullness of the Word to this ministry. That includes your ministries, businesses, relationships, etc.

This month I want to take a little time to address a specific need for prayer. It is a regular occurrence to cover our ministry appointments before they occur. We always pray for favor, attendance, open and receptive hearts, prophetic utterance with the on-time rhema word, etc. This month I would ask that we remain mindful for the need to continue to cover the pastors, churches, areas, and the fruit following each appointment. We do not want to leave an area without prayer concerning the work that the Lord set in motion. Nor do we want to see Him robbed of the fruit of the labor or the Glory due to Him.

Please join us in keeping past appointments covered as well as future ones. Filese always reminds me that assumption is not faith. When SGMM leaves a region, we cannot assume that the work is done and we move on down the road without a second thought. A good farmer plants a seed but then tends to the crop with water, fertilization, pest control, weed control, and so forth. So we too should tend to our crop with prayer for the work of the Lord to continue without hindrance. Remember, we do have an enemy who is actively looking for seed to steal. It brings him great satisfaction to disrupt a work of God. He works to steal the glory to God from God. We are not ignorant of his wiles.

One of the reasons that SGMM has a high rate of repeat visits to so many regions and churches is because we are called to the body of Christ for discipling, equipping, training, and encouraging. Pastors have grown to trust this ministry because they experience the anointing upon Rev. John and Filese. But they also experience the genuine concern that SGMM has to see their individual ministries strengthened and enhanced after the last message is preached and the last song is sung. That's why our prayers after the fact are so important. Many times ministry does not stop just because the ministry setting is over. That is how this ministry has grown over the years. That is why we count so many across the country as family. We have become co-laborers in the work of the Lord.

Thank you for your continued support. You are loved and deeply appreciated. Remember that the joy of the Lord is your strength. Make the choice to receive that joy. We celebrate you today!

Some articles and/or reports appearing in this newsletter issue may have been edited and/or altered due to limited space and also to protect the privacy and integrity of SGMM and the individuals releasing these reports/articles.

Please continue to send in your praise reports to give God all the Glory for the things He has done and continues to do!

Dear SGMM,

I would like to take this opportunity to share with the partners of Son Grace Music Ministries of how my life was touched in a women's retreat.

The Spirit of God drew me to the retreat through the title itself, "What's on Your Mind?"

Being a strong believer of the importance of what we think and speak, I knew God was drawing me by His Spirit to attend.

Still two weeks after the retreat there is a fire inside of me burning with the unction of the Holy Ghost to bring more of His daughters into this refreshing of His love and blessings. He has instilled through this ministry of SGMM.

I would highly encourage any of my sisters to attend a women's retreat with Sister Filese Hauser and the team that accompanies her. I promise that your life will be forever changed.

God Bless
