Letters & Emails of Praise to God

Lisa,

I just wanted to drop you a line to let you know what a great job I think you did getting the Son Grace conference together and all the hard work you did behind the scenes. I know you have a servant's heart and you do so much for Son Grace...just thank you so much. I thought the Conference was fantastic!

And, Jeff, the Praise and Worship was wonderful. You truly do use your talent and abilities for God and you really lend to the anointing. Salvation is free, but there's a price to be paid for the anointing. That price is spending time with God.

God bless you both. I love you.

SGMM Partners,

On Saturday, Nov. 12, I attended the SGMM Word Conference at the Crown Center in OKC. There are no words to describe how blessed and uplifted I've been feeling in the days following the conference. The anointing on the praise band and the speakers was so powerful. I knew I was in the presence of God.

To me, the most exciting part of every Conference is when Rev. John Youell, Sr. gives the Prophetic Word to SGMM for the upcoming year. This year was no disappointment. This prophetic word not only applies to Rev. John & Filese, but to all of the SGMM family and partners.

I'm so excited to see how all these things manifest, and was so blessed to be at the Word Conference to hear it first hand.

In His Name,
Gena Drechsler

SGMM Filese & John,

What an awesome day!!!

This year's Word Conference for SGMM was so wonderful! Each speaker was so anointed and spoke God's Word with such clearness and authority.

Filese, I am humbled when I think of how God birthed SGMM many, many years ago. I will never forget the time we sat in Pizza Hut visiting and I felt so strongly that God was going to place you in full-time ministry as Son Grace Music Ministries. Shortly after that, you were the Worship & Praise leader for a Women's Aglow Retreat for the Eastern District of Oklahoma. Once again, God's endorsement on you was so obvious.

With each studio recording and with each divine appointment, God was solidifying His purpose and call upon your life. I will never forget our time together on the mission trip to Monterrey N.L., Mexico when God poured out His Spirit on both you & Rev. John in such a manner that I just stood in awe and watched Him move and work in the lives of those precious people. I literally saw and heard God give an interpretation of "tongues" to a believer who in turn translated it into the Spanish language. This lady knew absolutely no English at all but was interpreting every Word you said, Filese, into Spanish. This was a "day of Pentecost" for me.

Rev. John, on this same trip I witnessed God use you in a mighty way! Under the most adverse conditions, you preached God's Word powerfully to many Hispanic people, watching them be set free from sin and addictions and be healed of physical diseases. This certainly affirmed to me God's hand was upon you both!

Then when you both began to travel together, a desire of my heart was met.

Although our time together is so very limited these days; my heart and prayers are always with you. I am on the front lines, spiritually with you. Our friendship and relationship will forever be sealed by God's love and grace.

I love you both and am so pleased to be a "founding" part of SGMM. I look forward to all God has for us!
Keep on Preaching and Singing!

Dear SGMM Partners and Friends,

What a wonderful privilege it was to attend this year's Word Conference! Each of the speakers brought not only a unique personal style, but a message worth hearing: a sound teaching, an encouragement, an insight, a revelation. The worship band was inspiring, the prayer was meaningful, and the kindness of those present was a blessing.

We were reminded that [we] can do all things through Christ who strengthens [us] (Philippians 4:13), and that, when trouble comes against us, we have an opportunity for God's anointing to be released in us. God has equipped us for success, which means doing what He wants of us. As followers of Christ, we have the Holy Spirit within us, providing the power and the authority to do what God asks.

We heard some of God's plans for SGMM.

There is much more we could share about this year's Word Conference, but suffice it to say that God was glorified throughout the day.

Your fellow servants,
Jay, Sheila, & Phil Lucas

Dear Rev. John, Filese, Jeff, Lisa and partners of SGMM,

Thank you so much for the Conference and ministry! What a great weekend for us, as a couple and individually. We thank God for you and the ministry of Son Grace in our lives and in the lives of so many others. On the drive home the next day, I shared with my husband, Rick, how blessed we are to be connected to this ministry and what a difference it has made in our lives!

First of all, thank you, Jeff and your praise and worship team for setting the atmosphere for the conference through the wonderful music.

Thank you, Lisa, for all the hard work you do for the ministry, and all the preparations you had to make for the conference. May God bless you both for your faithfulness! And thank you Rev. John Youell for the use of the Crown Center. We thank God for your nice facility and willingness to open it up for the Conference every year.

As a person, several things spoken in the messages touched my heart.

I had been struggling the last couple of weeks in some areas, and those emotions and feelings were addressed through the speakers at conference.

Pastor Steve Perdue's words concerning success were an eye opener through his message on the fear of failure and concept of success. I realize now I need to accept myself for who I am. The biggest revelation is how I expect things from myself that God does not, that I put more pressure on myself than God does. I understand now that where I am is a sovereign design of God. Success in God's eyes is in my obedience no matter the situation or outcome. I know I need to learn to be happy in just being me, that success can't be evaluated on appearance, spiritual or otherwise. God has invested much in me and I want Him to be pleased with the return through my obedience.

Pastor Terry Tyson's message just built more on the peace I have learned to seek after. I enjoyed his message as well, and appreciated him addressing the three dimensions we deal with.

Rick referred to Kay's message as we drove home. I appreciated the different approach to the power and authority we have through Jesus Christ. Both Pastor Curtis and Kay Torrance encouraged us to be more aware of the opportunities and to keep our ear tuned to hear, and to respond through obedience when that opportunity presents itself.

I can't even begin to list all the points we benefited from through the message from Pastor John Youell Jr. "Come Up Here" is what God has been laying on my heart for weeks, not in those exact words, but very close, through God's call to me to separate myself even more in fellowship with Him.

There are things God had already spoken to my heart as I questioned Him and strove to remain in that place of a seeker.

Pastor John, Jr.'s opening words were: "There are some levels of revelation you can't get in the level you are at, and He says, 'come up here'." His closing words were: "If you are one who has been questioning, make sure your hope is in God and not in you!" I know I need to build on his message in my life in many ways.

Pastor Lavon Thompson makes me laugh! I truly enjoyed his message on the integrity of God's Word.

I once again believe the Word presented to SGMM for 2006 from Pastor John was right on! It bore witness with my spirit, and I believe you have been living between your dream and your destiny, and you are fixing to move into the fullness of your destiny and what SGMM has been called to do, in ways that will just astound you! He has been preparing you for what lies ahead, and it is huge for the kingdom!

Thank you so much for a Word impacted weekend! God made a way for us to be able to come, and we are so thankful!

In Christ's love,

Jeff & Lisa!

I just wanted to send a quick note to say thank you for all you do behind the scenes for SGMM. Your hard work doesn't go unnoticed or unappreciated.

The Conference was such a blessing for us and the praise and worship, Jeff, was such a breath of refreshment for us! I know you both put in many hours of work and we are the ones who get to reap the blessings of the fruit of your labors!

May God bless you richly for your faithfulness to Him and to the ministry of SGMM.

Dear Brother John & Ms. Filese,

Greetings in the name of our current and soon coming King, Jesus!

Thank you for the wonderful time in the Lord. Sammie and I enjoyed the day, hearing the Word (my what good messages) meeting new brothers and sisters in the Lord. Good to meet Brother and Sister Youell! I'm impressed someone would remember something I preached 20 years ago, especially in a positive way, ha! And it was good to see John & Charlene Shepherd and to have lunch with them...not enough time.

I believe "Strange doors will open for you." I'm not sure what Strange means unless, "it's the unusual." Perhaps it is the uncommon, non-church, where the Gospel will not get in otherwise. Bottom-line: don't say no, until after prayer.

May God's blessings continue to be with you!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor LaVon & Sammie Thompson
