Dear Precious Partners and Friends,

Greetings in the wonderful name of Jesus Christ our Lord!

What an awesome God we serve.... We just want to praise the Lord for all of you, for the beautiful rain we have had lately here in Oklahoma and the refreshing days occasionally, of cooler temperatures. Glory be unto God for being the Provider to us all and also for the miracle of His keeping power day in and day out, in every area of our lives.

We have had a busy month this month with us continuing to prepare to leave Tuesday, September 5th, for Louisiana with Dr. Ron Carpenter, Sr., and Evangelism USA, for the Mid-South Conference there. They were hit pretty hard by Katrina last year, and are still in the re-building stages. We pray to be a blessing to all there, as well as Dr. Ron, who is so good to us in opening new territory opportunities for ministry. Praise be to God and a heart full of thanksgiving to Dr. Ron Carpenter, Sr. Please be in prayer for this conference and us; that God will be glorified and His encouragement will be taken to that region and people. We would ask you to pray for favor for us also, that new doors for ministry might be opened up to us and SGMM in this area of the country.

Thank you! For taking time to read the SGMM Road Report/ Newsletter each month in it's entirety, as it arrives to you. So much work is put into it, on a regular monthly basis, by each one who seeks the Lord in the writing of the articles, and especially the SGMM General Office Secretary, Lisa G., who works so beautifully and very hard for the Lord, in order to keep everything going forth to you, so that you may continue to be informed as to all that God is doing in His and your ministry of SGMM. We so appreciate all of the calls and e-mails that we receive, telling us how much the monthly Newsletter means to all of you. Thank you! For letting us hear from you in this area of the ministry operations. We value you and your input so for the fresh illumination that the Holy Spirit released to us on the true meanings of 'God's Presence, and Glory', looking at the difference between Presence and Glory, (Glory/ God...Himself in His Fullness that is on His way to invading our lives like never before). The Presence of God being when we can pre-sense God, or when we strongly experience God with us and Glory being when we SEE God manifest Himself to us in all of His fullness and power.

very, very much. Our Women's day seminar with Harvest Time Ministries, here in Oklahoma City was truly a powerful day in journey of study and fellowship, as we reasoned the Word of the Lord together on the subject of, "Stepping into the Glory". Praise be God

It was an awesome day. Thank you Darlene and HTM Women, also all of the TCC and SGMM Women Partners that joined us for the day.

We had a time of all times in the Lord during our wonderful appointment at Christian Heritage Church in Yukon, OK on August 12th.

Darlene Childers at HTM Women's Day

Susan Pitts and the CHC Women outdid themselves in all of their preparations for our coming, and this divine appointment of God with SGMM. We learned just how valuable we, God's Daughters, are to the Lord and His Kingdom purposes. We had fresh insight given once again, by the Holy Spirit, as we looked at Proverbs 31 in a whole new and different light. God's power was so strongly demonstrated among us during the day's journey. We give God all of the Glory for all that was done and worked in our lives. Hallelujah!!! Thank you, Pastor Marc and Susan for your sweet kindness and love to this Servant of God and His ministry of SGMM. Once again the partners present from TCC and SGMM helped to make the day so special. Thank you Partners and Dear Sisters in Christ for your support at these meetings. We love you so, so much. I want to thank our precious SGMM Power Team Prayer Captain, Miranda Baker, for her rich teaching at this retreat, on FAVOR. I had asked Miranda if she would impart teaching to us on this subject that so fit our study on, "She is more Precious than Rubies", and she said certainly she would, and she did a SUPER job.

We were reminded that 'she', speaks of WISDOM...and that "we are to get Wisdom and Understanding". What a deep study and moving journey we had. One of my greatest joys at these two appointments, was having my dear sister-in-love, friend, and partner in ministry, Anne Youell, (Prayer Pastor of TCC, and my brother, Pastor John's sweet wife and helpmeet), with me. Anne is truly one who is ALWAYS, interceding in prayer for us and this, God's ministry of SGMM. Thank you so, so much Sis. You can't know how very much your presence and God's Presence meant to me. I love you!

Well precious ones, until next time, please keep on prayin' and praisin' the Lord, as you experience His Presence daily, learning to live in the Presence so that we can be prepared for the "Glory Invasion" that is coming. God bless you each one. Let us hear from you. We love IT!!!!

Oh, and do keep our fall tour in the East in your prayers. We will leave immediately after we return from Louisiana. Coming back through Oklahoma for just a few days to load the Gospel Coach.

A BIG THANK YOU, to all of you who have responded so quickly already, to the 2006 Annual Miracle Bus Principle Letter. God Bless You!!! RICHLY, for your continued faithfulness in ALL you do and give to this Ministry, for the sharing of the Gospel of Jesus and the Kingdom. We do love and appreciate you so, and NEVER, do we take you and who you are to us, or what you do, for granted!

The Captain's Corner

Dear Friends and Partners,

As a mother with school-aged children, I greet you today. Life seemingly revolves around school and all the hustle and bustle accompanied with it. Life is a blur of dance rehearsals, football practices, drum lessons, homework, volunteering in the media center, etc. That's just what is added as a result of school starting.

In the midst of all this and more, God is calling me to a time of listening and being taught of Him. It's difficult to stop when you are used to perpetual motion from sunup to sundown. It takes a concentrated effort on my part. It's not that I wasn't listening or learning before. This is pressing, more concentrated. This is like a parent taking a child aside and looking them square in the face. The parent has something important, urgent, even crucial for the child to hear, understand, and apply. That's what God is doing.

I doubt it is just me that He is wanting this encounter with in the Earth today. I would dare to say that He would like to take all of us by the chin and look us square in the face. We really need to find out if Daddy God has something crucial to tell us. Oh, I know. You have a daily time with the Lord. Let me encourage you to evaluate the productiveness of your daily quiet time.

It's like a marriage that has gone a little stale because the partners are taking each other for granted. There are times when the usual date night to the movies just isn't going to be enough. Sometimes we have to have a quiet dinner face to face and exchange conversation. Most of us like a little bit of change of scenery and pace now and then. That's what I am encouraging you to consider as you approach your time with the Lord. Ask Him what is needed in order for Him to be able to commune with you effectively.

I love it when school starts in the fall. It signals a new season coming. I always have to figure out how to manage the schedules. This year God asked me to change my personal schedule with Him around. He even asked me to eliminate teaching to accommodate Him. Even though teaching is something I dearly love and truly feel called to, I agreed. You see I don't want my love affair with my God to become stale. I want to be available to hear my Daddy God and see Him square in the face.

Until next time, pray for favor for open doors of ministry from the Louisiana tour with Dr. Ron Carpenter, Sr. and EVUSA. Pray for the conference on Nov. 11. We are already being "wowed" by the theme that God gave for this year. See you there!!

Pray now for the fall tour in the East. We love you deeply and certainly appreciate you tremendously. If God speaks to you concerning Rev. John and Filese and SGMM during your time with Him, let us know. That's why we have covenanted prayer partners. We need for you to be receiving words of encouragement on behalf of the ministry. As you talk to the Lord about this ministry, He will talk back to you. Your prayers are the foundation for SGMM. They always have been.

In His Service,

Miranda Baker, SGMM Prayer Captain

Prayer Request

A Note from the Office

SGMM Family,
Thank you all so very much for updating us on the changes to your addresses and phone numbers. It is helping us with cutting down on cost for postage with returned mailouts and it is so much appreciated. Please never hesitate to let us know of your change of address, phones and emails as they happen. It helps the office so much and it greatly appreciated.

Continue to keep SGMM in your prayers, Rev. John & Filese, as well as the General office and the Prayer Captain's office.

As always, thank you for your continued faithfulness that helps keeps the ministry of SGMM moving forward for the Kingdom of God.

Blessings,
SGMM General Office

The Journey Toward Healing V

I believe that one mistake many in the church have made in the area of appropriating healing is not taking seriously the essential importance of what we say (confess) with our mouth. Because many times, our every day speech does not confirm what we think we believe.

At least, one author has a lot of teaching on this subject along these lines. He states it as well as I could. I am passing it on to you. So, the major content of this article were compiled for this article from a teaching from an e-book by Jay Snell. The site is: www.jaysnell.org.

"There is a relationship between your spoken word and your receiving the blessings of God. What you speak determines what you obtain of the blessings God wants to give you."

Rom10:6-10

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) 7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; 9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. KJV

I believe healing is a part of my salvation. Since we receive salvation by hearing the good news and believing (accepting) what God has done, and confessing it aloud, I believe healing is appropriated the same way.

Mark11:22-23

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. (KJV)

"The word translated into English as confession is a combination of two Greek words, the Greek word HOMO which means the same, and the Greek word LEGO which means to say. The word confession, in the above passage, then, means to say the same thing. Say the same thing as what? We must say with our mouths the same thing that God says in His Book. In this passage, we must confess our way into salvation."

To confess means we are acting on the acceptance and submission to the truth of the Word of God. This is our part in fulfilling the agreement or covenant God made for us to be saved from sin, fear, lack, need, confusion, hopelessness. So, we need to understand what salvation is. To be saved is more fully discussed below.

"Salvation is the Greek word SOTERIA. This word is translated different ways in the Greek New Testament. All of them pertain to salvation. In other words, salvation contains more than just our ticket to Heaven. This Greek word, SOTERIA, or salvation (the verb form of this word is SODZO) is translated by the words preserved, saved, healed, salvation and whole. So, when Paul says in Romans 10:10, that we make confession into salvation, he is saying that we must confess our way into everything contained in salvation."

"All the Bible means, when it tells you to confess with your mouth certain things, is just agree with what God said. For if I agree, this means I believe it and I'm lining myself up with the word of God. But if I don't confess with my mouth the same thing God says in the Word, it means I don't agree with what He said. Is it any wonder that the blessings of God fall short in our lives when we have lined ourselves up directly against the Word of God?" "The Bible says that with the mouth confession is made unto or into. The Greek text actually says that with the mouth one confesses into salvation. In other words, salvation is external to a lost person, but with his mouth he confesses his way into the salvation that already exists."

"The Greek word translated unto, in the expression, "confession is made unto salvation," is not a rest word. It is a motion word which implies we are traveling somewhere. Do you want to get into everything God has for you? Confess what He has for you. Say the same thing with your mouth that the Word of God says on the written page. You confess your way into the full range of what that word, salvation, contains in the Greek text."

Even after hearing about the goodness of God and his plan for the salvation of your life, you must do something. Even after learning about all the benefits that Christ purchased for us. You must do your part. You must walk out your salvation. You must walk out the steps. Your part of this agreement (covenant) is acting out the next two steps of appropriating the benefits of salvation.

"There are two ... (steps) for a Christian to obtain the blessings God has promised him just like there are two ... (steps) to getting saved (believe and confess). In both cases, it takes both of them. The Bible says that in order to be saved, one must believe with his heart and he also must confess with his mouth. You must believe with your heart into righteousness, but you must confess with your mouth into the full range of what is included in that Greek word salvation. So then, the Greek says, with the mouth a man confesses into salvation."

"The Bible says that with the heart man believes into righteousness but with the mouth he says the same things as God. The motion word into takes over, commensurate with the level of your saying. You must learn not only to believe and trust God, but you must say what you believe and trust. You must say the same thing with your mouth that God said in His Word. When you say what God says, then you and God are in agreement."

"Jesus is emphasizing the fact that you must speak it (His Truth). This is where we make our mistake. We will read a scripture and we will get a promise. Then we will believe it. Then we will think it. Because we thought it, we will substitute our thinking it for our speaking it. But there is a radical difference between thinking something and speaking something. Therefore, Jesus used a word in Mark 11:23 that removes all doubt as to what He meant. For if He had meant "think it," there is a Greek word that He would have used here for "thinking it". But Jesus used, and

"You can believe it but it will not happen until you say with your mouth the same thing that you believe, which is what God's Word says in Scripture. There must be a matching, corresponding confession with what you believe, for it is the confession that fuels it to make it all go. Without the confession, you stay in your circumstance. It is your confession that makes it all reality."

"There is nothing left that God needs to do for you concerning salvation, material blessing or healing. He has already given it all. Therefore we appropriate it by faith. This appropriation has three parts to it. First, we must know the promise in our mind. Second, we must believe it in our heart. Third, we must speak the promise out loud. Your words move you into what He has already done."

"Your words force (appropriate) the Word of God into your circumstances. This is all contingent upon you speaking with your lips the same thing God said in His Word. You will have what you say. Good or bad, positive or negative, the word of God or the word of the devil, blessing or cursing, you will have what you say."

"When you line up with this, Jesus said you can have whatever you say. If it is covered in Scripture (every blessing known to man is covered there) just start talking it. You cannot move into until your confession matches your Scriptural belief. Your belief must match the written Word."

If your need is answered in the Scripture by the promise of God, you can appropriate that promise by doing your part. Take the steps to see the goodness of God manifested. Start acting out your faith by speaking what God says is the Truth, not what you or someone else thinks is the truth. Put your money where your mouth is. Start talking like you believe what the Word says.

If you need to, change your mind. You know what the Word says, now believe (accept) and confess (speak) what the Word of God promises and be healed.

SGMM Partners,

I just wanted to take the time to remind each of you to check out the website. It is continually in process as things are being added to the site. If you are ever needing to check out whether SGMM will be in your area or would like an update on what's going on so you can be in prayer, check out the website. I continually update the site with dates and times of appointments as they come available.

In that vein, please keep Dad & Mom, Rev. John & Filese in your prayers as they begin this year, 2006 Fall Tour. We all appreciate your prayer coverage for them.

Congratulations!

Congrats to new grandparents, Arvil & Etta Spirlock (Filese's sister) on the birth of Taylor Nichole Burgess to parents Darcee & Jason and little sister, Chloe.

Taylor was 8lbs 3oz and 20 ¾" long.

We love you all so very much and are so proud to welcome Taylor— Rev. John & Filese

Dear Prayer Partners,

Once again I would like to thank all of you for your prayers that went up for me the 8/16/06. I am at home now and doing fine. Please keep praying that the test will come back ok.

Dear Filese and SGMM,

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus!

We experienced a sweet time in the presence of the Lord as we began our Women's Conference on Saturday August 5th. I know every woman enjoyed your ministry as you lead us into worship and then taught us from the Word of God. You encouraged us to lay aside every weight that would hinder us from experiencing the manifestation of the glory God is about to release on this generation. We are to be ready expecting Him to come in His fullness.

Many ministered to in prayer. We also had a great time of food and fellowship at our luncheon.

Thank you, Filese, for sharing with us at Harvest Time Ministries. May God Bless you abundantly!

With Love,

Dear Son Grace Ministries,

With great joy I want to report the mighty outpouring of God's Spirit and presence on Ruby Slipper Day held at Christian Heritage Church IPHC in Yukon, OK.

Thank you! Thank you!

Thank you to the many partners that made this day of incredible ministry to women possible by sending us Rev. Filese Hauser. Over 30 women gathered representing 14 different churches, and we were blessed beyond measure at the depth of the teaching of the Word of God. Our focus that day was on how precious we are as women in God's sight for truly we are more precious than rubies.

There was a rumbling in the Spirit throughout the day as God began the deep work of changing the hearts of those present. We began to lay down our preconceived ideas of who we were and to pick up the great truth that we were precious, precious, precious in the Lord's sight. As we lay down our burdens, the chains began to lift off of weary shoulders and the peace and joy of God began to take hold.

In the Spirit, you could hear the sounds of chains falling off and prison doors being opened. We even opened wide the physical doors of the sanctuary to represent the loosing in the Spirit of the women who were being set free!

The powerful ministry of Rev. Filese was truly released in the afternoon session, as the Holy Spirit stepped in mightily with the plan for what the Father destined for that day! Once again, let me say Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!
