Filese Teaching on Apathy Alert Women's Retreat – Lawton, OK

Filese with SGMM Partner Ann Hudson in Lawton, OK

We were so blessed to have some time as a family camping at Thunderbird Lake this year.

To the right are Jeff and Joshua – giving each other a bear hug and below that is Joshua Will riding his bike at the camp ground. At the bottom is our son, Jeff and Rev. John outside cooking steaks for dinner. It was such a wonderful relaxing time together. We are so blessed.

"UNLOCKING and RELEASING, God's PRESENCE like A SHADOW, God's PEACE like A DOVE, God's PROVISION like A FOUNTAIN, and God's POWER like A WILD-FIRE, in 2009!" Matthew 16:19 "This will be a year of Greater Discernment & Awareness. (Prophetic Word Given by Pastor Youell for SGMM 2009) "Believing For and Expecting Miracles in 2009." (Given at TCC for 2009)

Dear Friends and Partners,

In this tumultuous time on planet Earth, we thank God for each one of you. God is so good and so faithful to us and to you. He is never late and His arm is never too short. We know that He is answering our prayers for you, even if it seems difficult to see those answers.

Honestly, I don't think I have ever walked through a more difficult year, naturally speaking. It seems that everything has been so much bigger in threat and possible consequences. At every turn I have seen the Word at work. Sometimes this prayer pastor has to reach out for prayer and encouragement. Well, I have to do it a lot. I am not too proud to call upon a few who will stand on the Word with me. So many times that has been several in the SGMM family. I have called upon this family when natural family had no idea there was a threat or concern. It has made me so much more aware of how thankful I am for Son Grace Music Ministries.

God has been so very active. The Word for 2009 has been right on time and right on target. I do so hope that you still know where your copy is and are currently praying it over the ministry and yourselves. I can't imagine what I would have done since November, if I had not had the Word before me on a constant basis. I have been carried by the logos Word (the Bible) and the rhema Word (the Word for SGMM for 2009). If it works for me, it will work for you.

Thank You, Lord, for the Presence of God like the shadow of a large cloud, the Peace of God like a dove, the Power of God like a wild-fire, and the Provision of God like a fountain. I ask You to cover these friends and partners of SGMM with these things which You have spoken. Without You, we are so easily moved by all that this world holds: sickness, disease, lack, hopelessness, fear, doubt and such.

Dear Ones, God is active. I pray that You are experiencing Him in your daily life. If you are going through something difficult, remember that you are not alone. We love you and thank God for you. If you do need to replace your copy of the Word, contact us or go the website: www.son-grace.com.

Oh, and thank you so much for the many cards and e-cards that I received in celebration of my birthday this last month. I was so blessed. The paper cards are still displayed on the piano. Thank you, Lisa; I know that the general office had a hand in getting the word out. I do so appreciate you!

Keep on praying,
Miranda Baker
SGMM Prayer Pastor

Thank you to everyone that sent e-cards, cards, gifts and phone calls to wish us a Happy Anniversary. We were so blessed and love you all so much.

Thank you also for your cards & emails of love to our grandson on his birthday and after Special Olympics.

You are all such blessings!

Letters & Emails of Praise to God

Thank you to all of you who write wonderful praise reports and send them into the office. We do make sure to include all praise reports we receive so if your report doesn't appear in this newsletter, it will be in one of the following newsletters!

Some articles and/or reports appearing in this newsletter issue may have been edited and/or altered due to limited space and also to protect the privacy and integrity of SGMM and the individuals releasing these reports/articles.

SGMM,

I attended the women's retreat at Miranda Baker's home. I was invited by a friend the previous week and had been looking forward to the event. Miranda's home was such a relaxing and welcoming environment. I immediately felt I would receive something from being there that day. The message that day was very exciting and positive. I also received a Word personal to me, from the Lord through our Speaker, Filese Hauser. The Word that was spoken to me that day has touched my life. It continues to motivate me to grow closer in my relationship with Christ and reminds me of God's love everyday and especially on those days when I need assurance. I thoroughly enjoyed myself and I look forward to future retreats with this ministry.

Dear SGMM,

The meeting was great as usual. As often happens, it went a little bit differently than we might have thought, but the Holy Spirit always knows what we need! This time we had an in-depth instruction on how to pray for our churches. This came at a really opportune time for us. I know God has great things for our little church, and I needed the extra boost we received at the retreat to help focus. I came away with many things to pray about and think about.

The sharing of the prophecy for SGMM and God's People for 2009 was also a blessing. I was really blessed by Filese sharing that it was not only for Son Grace Ministry, but was also for each one of us. Several parts of that prophecy spoke to me personally. I was very encouraged and felt there was practical help for me from Holy Spirit! I have since gone over it several times and continue to be blessed and encouraged.

I was blessed to be able to participate. I am so grateful for servants of God who will listen, and share with us what they have been given. It also means a lot to me to sit under ministry that gives Holy Spirit full reign. This allows us to receive just what we need, and not just a "good" teaching. We had practical expression of the "Real Deal" in ministry and teaching.

I so appreciate these week-ends and the chance to be refreshed and renewed. It is like being taken out to dinner and you don't have to cook or clean up, but can just enjoy! I felt like the old commercial years ago (and I don't even remember the product!) that said, "Thanks! I needed that!" I received some much needed rejuvenation and renewal.

"UNLOCKING and RELEASING, God's PRESENCE like A SHADOW, God's PEACE like A DOVE, God's PROVISION like A FOUNTAIN, and God's POWER like A WILD-FIRE, in 2009!" Matthew 16:19 "This will be a year of Greater Discernment & Awareness. (Prophetic Word Given by Pastor Youell for SGMM 2009) "Believing For and Expecting Miracles in 2009." (Given at TCC for 2009)

I have also found myself in the days since evaluating and re-evaluating things I am doing in light of "The Real Deal". Am I truly acknowledging Him in ALL my ways? Am I walking in truth and in His light? The weekend really gave me a heads-up in several areas that needed to be examined. Growth is an outcome of just such experiences. And growth is my desire.

May God be praised!!!
Sandy Scott

Filese,

I want to thank you for following the Holy Spirit and calling me. Tuesdays is one of my harder days and I am yet to figure out why. You were on my mind early this morning as I was driving to work. My heart is always heavy as my normal routine now does not include my precious baby boy. He not only was my baby but he was my friend and also prayer partner as I drove him to school every morning.

I want to thank you for the women's retreat you spoke at. I will be honest I was telling everybody I was going but was not really for sure I was. I got up Saturday and I thought I have a perfect excuse, it is raining. Then I thought well I am driving not walking so that really is not a good excuse. As I set there I thought I need this and I am going to go. I got ready and went out to my car and I could not find my keys. I said "ole devil, I know this is going to be good and I need this because you just keep on trying to get me to stay home". Needless to say I found my keys and off I went to experience the most exciting, awesome and I could go on and on gift I could ever imagine. It was the gift of the Holy Spirit within you Filese as you ministered to me and shared with me everything I needed to hear from God.

I had asked God to send me a sign the morning before and just let me know Zachariah was happy. I told God I know he is but I just need to know. As you shared with me what God had told you it was exactly what I needed. As you held me I could feel His warmth and as I cried out I could feel a release of grief that I have not been able to experience since Zachariah's passing. Rickie and I continue to grieve daily as even our happy thoughts bring tears because we know they are only memories, but I thank God daily for each and every one of those precious memories. Zachariah was a gift from God and his journey was far too short but made an impact on more people in his short time on earth than most people do in a full life-time.

The one thing that Zachariah was not afraid or ashamed of was to talk about Jesus. He trusted in Jesus and believed in the power of prayer. Zachariah taught me so many things and the most was to love unconditionally and I thank my precious God for him. So I continue to praise him for Zachariah and allowing Rickie and I to have him as long as we did. What an honor it was to be picked to be his parents. Without becoming Zachariah's Mama I would not be where I am today. I would have been very bitter because I was not able to have children and after 14 years of marriage God blessed us with a baby boy. I was a Christian when I became Zachariah's mama but it was more important that we take him to church and teach him and live the way God wanted us to. Through teaching him we were taught and learned that God is the number one priority in our lives.

Since Zachariah's passing God has become even more important in our lives as we depend on Him for dealing with our grief. He is the only one that gives me true comfort.

Again, Filese thanks so much for your phone call, I have only known you a few days but can say with all my heart I love you!! I want to personally thank everybody that has lifted my family and me up in prayer during this time. I ask that you continue to pray for us as we travel this journey as I can feel all your prayers and I know we are not going it alone. Most of all praise be to God!!!

Love and Prayer,
Suzanne Lewis

SGMM,

We had a fantastic turn out, even with heavy rainfall. Women of God need meetings and times of refreshing like this. Some of the ladies received a word of exhortation from the Lord and I believe all of us left there with a fresh touch and the desire to live under an "open Heaven" !! Thank you, Filese, for coming to minister to us. God bless you.

Patricia Casey – Kiowa

Dear SGMM Partners and Friends,

I am excited to report that the Ladies Retreat held in my home in Lawton, OK was a blessed time in the study of the word.

The Theme was "Apathy Alert" We came to the conclusion that this subject is very prevalent in The Body of Christ, sad as it is and this must grieve our Lord very much. We must come together as Christians, line up with the Word of God and do our part with God's help, and say "away with apathy" in our lives and in The Church.

As always the ladies gain much from Filese's teaching. But the most important GOD was in our midst. Two of the Ladies received a personal Prophetic Word from God through Filese. Praise God we also received an invitation for another retreat in one of the Ladies churches that was attending.

IT WAS A BLESSED DAY IN THE LORD.

Filese,

What a pleasure it was to open my home for God to minister to my friends through you, His servant. I've had so many reports from those who were blessed through your ministry. It was a day of refreshing for some and new beginnings for others. I was even able to apply something I learned to a situation my daughter experienced, and able to help her apply that same principle in her life this week.

God is such a good God. He ministered to each lady in the way that they needed. As I told Rev. John, his sermon spoke to me in a way that I needed Sunday morning. I can't say enough about how I was brought into God's presence during the Sunday evening worship singing. When you and Rev. John were Pastoring here at Kiowa we experienced that same atmosphere many times, and it was so awesome Sunday night to have the Holy Spirit just minister to us as we worshipped our God.

As always it was a pleasure to have you and Rev. John as our guest for several days. We had such a nice visit and enjoyed the few extra days we had together. I truly thank you for being so faithful to the Lord in your ministry.

I love you both,
Deborah Weaver, your sister in Christ.
