Love in Christ,

Jeff, Lisa and SGMM Management

Dear Friends and Partners,

Happy Holidays and Merry Christmas everyone. We love and appreciate you more than our words can express. May this season bring you much joy as you take time in all of the busyness to truly think about Christ, the one whom we celebrate. The busyness and stress would be greatly eliminated if we just got back to the simplicity of what we are celebrating. Not that a baby being born to a virgin is simple, but rather the message of WHY He was born. It is a simple message, if you approach it with the wonder and awe of a child. Ah, the wonder and awe of a child.

We are receiving many reports of praise to God for the fall tour. Read them so that you can rejoice with us that SGMM is growing and advancing in the scope in which the Lord has chosen to use the ministry. It is from Him and because of Him that we go forward to touch and change lives. Thank you for whatever part you are fulfilling to help be a part of His work on the earth.

The Annual Word Conference was a great day of worship and teaching. We truly had a great array of speakers. The Word for 2010 was released to us and is already being manifested to us. It is already being prayed on your behalf as well. It will be released by SGMM Management in the near future. Be looking for it.

It is always so good to see those of you who are able to attend. What a blessing to spend a day with you. I can't think of anything I would rather do than sit with you in an anointed atmosphere and receive the word of the Lord through song and the spoken message. It was awesome. Please consider joining us next year if you have never attended one of the conferences.

Please stay in touch with us. We want to know your praises and your prayer needs. That is what this ministry is all about.

God bless,
Miranda Baker
SGMM Prayer Pastor

Letters & Emails of Praise to God

SGMM,

Pastor John and Filese and their group provided an atmosphere of holy worship that helped me to deepen myself in His presence. Their Spirit-filled hearts and loving embraces are truly a blessing. You were obedient to the Lord and therefore exposed my need before I knew it was there and I thank the Lord for you all!

SGMM,

At the end of the second evening, I asked for prayer for an upcoming doctor's visit concerning my heart. While praying, I was told that "Everything is done already. Don't worry." At my appointment several days later, the doctor said there was nothing wrong with me, and that he no longer wanted me to return unless I really had something wrong - when I am in my later years. Praise God!

SGMM,

I have been battling alcohol for many years, all the time hating what it was doing to my health and my relationships, especially with my loved ones. Yet, I was unable to break free. After Pastor John, Filese and Cheri prayed for me, the battle continued for several days, but finally I felt strong enough to draw the final line. I have been alcohol-free for more than a month and am eating three healthy meals each day. What a relief it is to be free from the driving pressure of needing to drink instead of leaning on the Lord! He is so faithful!

Dear Filese and SGMM,

Grace and peace to you.

We were wonderfully blessed by you here at Damascus United Methodist Church. We know that God used Jay and Sheila Lucas to bring you to us and we are grateful. We are still praising God for the new soul He saved for Himself through your ministry here and for the way the Holy Spirit met those who came forward with needs.

I am especially thankful for the way you, Filese, were teaching our people to worship our Lord. You have a bold yet sensitive way of leading and just sharing Jesus with people.

Please thank your partners for praying for us. May the Lord continue and even increase the fruit He produces through you all.

Pastor Mick Foster*

SGMM,

I attended the SGMM Conference on Nov. 14 and was so blessed! I went with high expectations and a desire to hear from God, and I was not disappointed. The theme for this year's conference was "The King's Temple" and all the teaching was so diverse but yet it all tied together. Every speaker had a message I needed to hear, and I'm so glad I spent that Saturday in God's presence and with His people. God has promised great things for Son Grace in 2010, and I'm very excited to be a part of such a faithful ministry.

SGMM Word conference 2009

The Word Conference started with the blowing of the Shofar and went into a wonderful time of Worship, ministry of the Word and personal ministry to the people.

*See you next year
at the SGMM Word
Conference 2010!
Don't Miss it!*

Special Thank You

Dear SGMM Family and Friends,

Anne and I so appreciate your prayers and financial contributions toward our recent trip to Lagos, Nigeria. We had 12 wonderful days in the presence of the Lord! The spiritual atmosphere in Lagos is "super charged" with expectancy for the Word of God and the manifestation of the power of the Holy Spirit.

We had the privilege to speak to students and national pastors, speaking seven different times. The people were "soaking up the Word" and very responsive to the presence of God in our midst. Anne spoke to the National Women's Ministry Meeting and God used her in a powerful way to encourage the hearts of minister's wives. We were able to deposit the powerful Word of God in the hearts of the people and the. Our prayer is that the spirit of expectation and hunger we witnessed in Nigeria will fill the church of the Lord Jesus in America in the coming days.

Once again, thank you for your prayers and support. You share in the eternal harvest of our ministry in Lagos, Nigeria.
