Life Changes

You are invited to the SGMM 2010 Women's Winter Conference "Life Changes"

We will have Guest Speaker, Marilyn Murray. Marilyn is currently part of the pastoral staff at First Assembly of God Church in Enid, OK and has been for more than 15 years. She directs the Sanctuary choir as well as special event choir. Her wealth of experience in ministry to all ages adds to the fresh delivery of the Word of God and its life changing power for the Body of Christ today. Marilyn is a certified counselor and has had extensive time and experience with all aspects of church life, but her greatest gift in ministry is the ability to teach the Word of God in a practical, easily relatable manner, using humor and her life experiences.

She has had the privilege of serving in the local church under many mighty men and women of God. Sixteen months ago Marilyn's life drastically changed when she lost her husband of 34 years also in that same year her mother went home to be with the Lord. Through these tragedies she has experienced a new appreciation for the comfort and hope that we receive from the precious Holy Spirit. It was recently said that scars show you have been hurt and scars show that you have been healed. And it is her hope that you receive this same healing power.

All women are welcome to spend the day in the presence of the Lord with us. Please join us for this wonderful day of Worship, Fellowship, Teaching, Laughter, Ministry and Communion and bring a friend. You will leave refreshed and revived.

Theme: 2010 The Year of God's Open Door that No ONE can shut! The word over SGMM this year is "OPENESS" I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have kept My word, and have not denied My name. Rev. 3:8
TCC (SGMM) Word of the Lord for 2010 "YEAR OF HEARING GOD'S VOICE" Luke 3:1-6

Dear Partners and Friends,

Hello to all. I pray that you are experiencing peace and provision in all the situations and circumstances that surround you. In all things, I pray that you are receiving strength and empowerment. If not, I pray that you be reminded of the One who is all these things and more. It seems that we must continually be reminded. That is why we need each other. Today I will speak to your heart. Tomorrow you may have to remind me or someone else.

Retreat season is in full swing and Rev. John and Filese are so blessed to be interim pastors in Briscoe, TX. We are so pleased to be allowed to have this open door of ministry to this body of believers in that community. Please pray for all of these ministry settings and for God's "sent one" for the congregation there in Briscoe. A major need for prayer coverage is in the area of weather and good travel conditions. We really desire for you to pray in this area. Open doors of ministry are only accessible if we can get to them.

Please keep the SGMM prophetic word handy to thank God for it and to use for prayer purposes. It is important to us that it be watched over and be manifested in our lives and ministries in its entirety.

You are deeply appreciated and loved. Please keep in touch with us as you are able. It is always a joy to be abreast of those things that are transpiring in your lives, the prayer requests and the praise!

God bless you. I speak openness over you today.

Miranda Baker
SGMM Prayer Pastor

Letters & Emails of Praise to God

Dear Son Grace;

I wanted to give you my impressions of Rev. John & Filese's fall tour into our part of Ohio. As usual, this couple gave themselves completely into God's hands to be used as He saw fit. And our God used them in a mighty way when they came to Copeland Oaks, a United Methodist retirement community in Sebring. Rev. John led an inspired study, following the beautiful voices of Filese and Cheri Blackann singing to the accompaniment of Harold Blackann on the Keyboard or piano, whichever was available. Rev. John made the Holy Spirit come alive for those of us there to hear. He spoke of the harmony The Holy Spirit brings to us as we quiet our hearts and listen for His direction. There was so much positive life-changing content in the messages, it will take some time to "unpack" the spoken word, and then apply it's truths to our lives. One thing is for certain, I will never view the Holy Spirit it the same way again. He is truly a person, co-equal with Christ Jesus, and a part of the Godhead.

Even when Rev. John was too sick to lead the studies, Filese took over seamlessly, and allowed herself to become an instrument of God for those of us gathered to hear the Word being expounded. What a blessing everyone shared together. Then to seal our unity, we celebrated Holy Communion the last day of the studies at the Blackann's home in Austintown. Again, the Spirit of God was present in an awesome way to fill the hearts of those present. We join with you in praying for increased financial and prayer support for this ministry in the coming year. God is using Son-Grace in a life changing way that will make an impact on the kingdom as the Lord tarries.

The Word conference was different this year, as Pastor John and Anne were in Africa, ministering to others in the vineyard. We feel confident that many pastors were impacted as they were instructed in the Word by such choice instruments as were sent to them.

The prophetic word came by way of video tape, but spoke of a season of "OPENNESS" for Son Grace in 2010. Caleb Ziegert confidently blew a sure sound from the Shofar to call us to Worship & Praise. Jaymi Jarvis ministered in Dance to enrich the worship of the King, and the speakers were all inspired to share God's timely message to those who committed to be there. Frances Pike, Mark Serviss, Steve Eden, Curtis Torrance and both Thomas & Jaymi Jarvis spoke in an inspired way to enrich and bless our lives, and the ministry of Son Grace and the Crown Center. Both Sheila and I hope to join with you again in 2010 for the Word Conference, and renew our contact with those who keep us all in touch. We want to thank Jeff & Lisa Gonzales, Miranda Baker, Pastor Youell, and of course Rev John & Filese Hauser. You are all dear friends in the Lord, and have a continuing place in our hearts and lives. May we all continue to grow into the choice instruments our God desires and has designed us to become.

Your Fellow laborer's
Rev. Jay, Sheila & Phil Lucas

SGMM,

I want to thank Rev. John & Filese and SGMM for such a "Holy" and exciting Fall Tour. Don & I both attended almost all of the Bible Studies and Concerts. The Holy Spirit was moving from the time Rev. John & Filese came to our house for the first Bible Study. We heard wonderful, touching testimonies along with others accepting Jesus for the first time.

Some were moved by the Holy Spirit during Rev. John's Bible study or preaching; while others by the Holy Spirit came to know Jesus by the Word through the music.

We had an awesome Women's Retreat. Women that met for the first time bonded together with our common bond of our love for Jesus. Filese did a lot of Bible studies which many of us learned more about the Holy Spirit and a personal prayer language. I personally matured in my prayer language and conquered some things that needed to be addressed.

So many lives were changed each night and were more enlightening and Holy Spirit driven. We thank God everyday for SGMM and Rev. John & Filese and how God has used them to bring so many of us to know our Lord. Each year that they come we grow more mature in our walk with our Lord. We thank God for such Christian friends who have become our family.

One night at one of the concerts, the 3n1 trio sang a song for Filese's Aunt. After the concert she said it was the wrong song that she wanted to hear, however, the Holy Spirit used this song and it touched a young lady's life and encouraged her so with her Lord. It was the song that needed to be heard that night. We give God all the glory for how He uses this ministry now and in the future.

God Bless you all!

All our Love
Ginny & Don – Austintown, OH
