

SGMM Partner Update

THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH & SHIELD; MY HEART TRUSTS IN HIM AND I AM HELPED. MY HEART LEAPS FOR JOY AND I WILL GIVE THANKS TO HIM IN SONG. PSALM 28:7

Issue 3 Vol. 25

Dear SGMM Partners and Friends,

Greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior Jesus The Christ!

WOW! What a winter we have already had here in Oklahoma. Over the past month we have set records in snow fall and accumulation in most areas of the state and for sure here in the Oklahoma City area. For us in this part of the country that is unusual and just shuts the City down for several days until we begin to thaw out. Most of the roads both east and west as well as north and south were closed during the first blizzard storm and it was very quite around here for several days with no one moving about and everything closed down. I must admit that the snow was beautiful and the last snow storm that we had, was just absolutely beautiful with big snow flakes falling from the sky for hours and at a pretty rapid pace, it was just beautiful and I loved watching it and thinking about how every snow flake is unique and different in itself and none alike. It is kind of like us and how God created us very original and different yet with great purpose and destiny, each one of us and like the snow flakes, beautiful and perfect in everyway to God and His creation of us. I thought, "WOW... the snow flakes have their own DNA too ☺". We just loved setting in our Ma and Pa chairs and watching the beauty of it all out our window, praising God for the wonder of all that He had created for us and what He uses to bless us.

We have had just an awesome retreat ministry winter season. Women have expressed over and over how much these times of gathering together means to them each year on the winter women's retreat circuit and we are so very grateful that God called this avenue of ministry into being so many years ago now through Son Grace Ministries. We love it and all that God is allowed to do in the lives of us as His "Women in this 21st Century". We had just a marvelous time at the annual 2011 SGMM/TCC Women of Grace Conference last Saturday, February 19th here in Okla. City at The Crown Center. The women out-did themselves on the luncheon at noon. Our speaker Joy Burchett was wonderful as she shared with us on the blessing of being, "King's Daughters of Destiny", and our TCC praise and worship team did awesome in leading us to the Throne Room in Worship.

Everyone that helped to put the Conference together once again this year did an outstanding job as always and we thank you so much for your faithfulness to the Lord. Pastor Anne and Miranda, SGMM Prayer Pastor were great instruments for the Lord at the Conference as were all of our Son Grace Women of God and TCC Women of Grace, thank you and God bless you richly.

Lisa, SGMM Secretary, our Daughter In Love (and so much more) just out-did herself and went over the top in setting everything in motion for the Conference and getting everyone and everything in place, so that God could be glorified and the women that joined us for the day, from all around us here in Oklahoma, could be greatly blessed by Holy Spirit and the atmosphere that was so well prepared with the Presence of God. Thank you! Lisa.

Thank you! To all of you who worked to make this a great day, and success to our God. Thank you Sister Joy Burchett We love you! And last but not least at all we thank those who worked behind the scenes to bring it all together in our sound and media area. You are each one deeply appreciated!

We are raising our level of expectation this year as we excitedly wait upon the Lord to see all that He has for us as His people and for the Kingdom this year 2011. It has certainly been a powerful beginning and wonderful start to something beautiful and good. Praise be to God! From whom all blessings flow! Look to Him in and for all things, and do not look about you at the disturbing news cast and trouble of the times, the rising gas prices and increasing cost of goods in the market place every time you go shopping, but rather praise your Great God that He has you in the palm of His hand and He holds tomorrow and is your Provider.

IN HIM WHO IS YOUR SHEPHARD, YOU SHALL NOT WANT NOR HAVE ANY LACK!!!!!! (Psalm 23) WE HEAR HIM CONTINUE TO SAY TRUST ME, TRUST ME! IN ALL THINGS PRAISE ME, IN ALL WAYS TRUST ME!! (Prov. 3:5-6, Psalms 37:3-4)

We love you each one so very, very much. "Be Strong and Courageous" Joshua (1:9) ... "Be Strong in the Lord and in the power of His might"! Eph 6:10

Jesus Hugs!

SGMM Word for 2011. (Given at the SGMM Word Conference for 2010 by SGMM Spiritual Advisor, Rev. John Youell, Sr.)

Dear Friends and Partners,
Hello from the prayer office. I wish I could say that Spring has sprung, but that isn't quite the case yet. My tulips are peeking out, but the temperature is way low for my liking. I will wait a while longer, knowing that it shall come in fullness, even as the Lord has promised that season would follow season.

At least I don't have to wait for retreat season as it is in full swing. They have all been so good, each in its own way. It has been a blessing to meet new sisters in the Lord and receive encouragement and instruction from the Lord. Please be sure to read the praise reports. They are powerful testimonies in the words of the ladies themselves.

It is such a tremendous thing to be a part of these settings to get a bird's eye view of the word in action. I suppose you can't truly appreciate its impact, without help from Holy Spirit, unless you are able to know what is transpiring in ministry settings. SGMM is being used to carry nutrients and deposit them in homes in various cities around the state right now. Thank you for your prayer support. It is vital.

We love and appreciate you so much. Next month my tulips will be in bloom and retreats will be winding up. The temperature will be more to my liking. Best of all, we will still be thanking God for each of you and praying for you.

Until then, you keep praying and trusting the Lord.

Letters & Emails of Praise to God

Dear SGMM,

I wanted to write and tell you about the experience I had at a retreat that I attended a few weeks ago. Miranda Baker had asked me before to attend a retreat at her home but I never did. I had been to many Women's Retreats before, some long weekends, some with several sessions and some for an all day event. I just could not imagine what she could have for women in one day and in her home that I had not already experienced. I knew the fellowship would be good but I really did not have a whole Saturday to devote to this kind of women's fellowship at this time. I mean I am a busy person, a Mom, kids at home, husband who works night and day, house to clean, Bible lessons to study, etc.,etc... BUT I MUST ADMIT, I WAS BLESSED BEYOND WHAT I COULD HAVE EVER IMAGINED BY THE WORDS OF OUR SPEAKER FILESE HAUSER AND WHAT GOD LAID ON HER HEART!

She said so many profound things, but one simple sentence hit me hard: "THIS YEAR WILL BE WHAT YOU AND GOD MAKE IT". I kept hearing her say this was a year for transition and transformation. Filese said, "Don't let your transmission get stuck so you don't transition." Reminding all of the wonderful ladies that our focus needs to be constantly changing as God calls us forward from this place to a deeper relationship and commitment to Him. Every moment is of vital importance this year as go out and serve from this meeting place. We are the church. This is the year of the church!

However, listening to her and looking at my own life, it made me realize that there is more. I think sometimes I do get stuck on one thing and don't move forward. I think the main reason I liked Filese so much is her honesty. I marvel at how she just comes out with the truth about what God has given her to say. It inspired me to be BOLD and COURAGEOUS in the Lord. And, "raise my level of expectation for this year," as the GATE WORD was delivered to us. Love it, just love it!

I have to say it was different than anything I have ever attended. I was very impressed that they did these special retreats for free. I know the money issue can keep women from attending. I loved the fact that it was a close-knit group and in a home. Although, I just knew a couple of the ladies, we were bonded by a much greater bond, our heavenly Father.

The focus on the entire day from the beginning to the end was God's Word. It consisted of what His word was for us to concentrate on for this time in our journey. There was no fluff going on here. Filese said so much that I am still digesting what was said. We are "Living Under God's Word AND OPEN HEAVEN for 2011".

Filese took time to look each of us in the eye and listen to what was on the top of our heart. Then she told us a word from the Lord for each of us. That was very special to me since I had never seen that done before in my life. She said for me that I had a sweet spirit and was teachable. How precious.

This is a journey that I am on and it will be steered in the right direction. Filese said, "God will show you your steps!". It all pointed to GOD as the only source of strength, courage and provision. Before I knew it, it was time to go! I did not want to go though! It was amazing and awesome.

I want to thank this ministry for these wonderful opportunities for women to come to know Christ, to be encouraged and to grow in His Word. I pray this ministry will be blessed abundantly with finances and people to continue to do this work of the Lord. Filese Hauser is very special servant of God and has an anointing upon her. I am blessed to have met her and thank you for releasing her for this ministry. Miranda Baker is a woman of God and I thank you for her being a blessing in so many peoples lives.

"WE SHALL SEE" (our retreat theme). And I am trusting Him to show me.

Your servant,
Debbie Oklahoma City, OK

SGMM Partners,

I Just received an email from Terrie (Hardy) and these are her words:

"Today the mail arrived. You would not believe the cards I am receiving from John and Filese's ministry group. It is unbelievable! Truly I am overwhelmed by the love of God through them. Please tell them I cried tears of joy over the words and prayers of their friends."

My heart swells with fullness and gratitude to you all for supporting and encouraging my precious friend. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

Kathy - Tulsa, OK

Dear SGMM/TCC Prayer Partners,

Thank you for your prayer support for the "Women of Grace" Women's Conference. Filese Hauser and her team did a superb job of organizing and preparing for the meeting at Crown Center Church in OKC, February 19th. The atmosphere was set for the moving of the Holy Spirit in women's lives. The Holy Spirit did precious works in the lives of the women as they worshipped, enjoyed fellowship at lunch, received beautiful doorprizes, and responded to the message.

The message "King's Daughters of Destiny" was illustrated with a Kings robe and crown (representing King Jesus), and a royal robe and crown (depicting King's Daughters) was modeled by Becky Chasteen. Several ladies responded to the invitation as I sang, "Healing Oil". The Holy Spirit used Filese to break some strongholds and set some women free.

The ladies were given miniature, collectible shoes and the Glory descended as Filese and I anointed the shoes (depicting their destiny as King's Daughters) and prayed prophetic prayers over them. Words from the Lord were given by the prayer team. There were tears of joy and repentance and the wind of the Spirit did some mighty works!

Lisa, was there serving the Lord by making sure everything went smoothly. It was an awesome meeting, and we know it could not have happened without all of you who intercede for this ministry. Prayer not only changes things, it changes how we feel about things. Spirits were renewed and new destinies were revealed. God is awesome! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

We were honored to have Betty Thompson in attendance. She is the Evangelism Director's wife of the International PH church. We will never be the same again!

Praise God for Son-Grace Ministries and all of you who support with your love and prayers!

Yours for Christ's Kingdom,
Joy Kerley Burchett (Conference Speaker)

SGMM,

SGMM Women's Conference was WOW and our Speaker was Fantastic! So many times you think no one can understand where you are, that they could never really know. Our Speaker last Saturday at the 2011 SGMM/TCC Women's Conference understood because life was not perfect for her either. She was funny made you laugh, you cried with her and rejoiced. I love how she told us about physical flaws of her own, ones she had been made fun of and how she realized God created her that way and it was perfect. How we should receive compliments and not knock ourselves down. I realized that what I've been made fun of all my life (even by family and friends) are my size (short) and eyes. That these are my special attributes God created for me to use as a ministry for Him.

I want everyone reading this to know that when God created you, you WERE PERFECTION. I so enjoyed the Conference and the Luncheon. The food was wonderful and I loved the variety that was prepared and set before us.

Thank you! Thank you! May God Bless this ministry!!!! Prayerfully,
Liz
