Dear Partners, Friends, and Family,
Hello to each of you. How are you? It's good to connect with you this month, I pray that you are well, but even more that you are experiencing the presence of the Lord in your personal lives. The year is going by so quickly with so many different obstacles in the nation and the world. Remember to look through the lense of the Lord as you process, analyze, and live out life. The word for 2011 is very active and a good reminder of how we are the think, act, and stand in difficult times.

We had an excellent retreat in Tulsa at the home of Kathy Stoops in April. I so enjoyed getting to know some new friends in that area. It was a productive retreat season. Thank you ladies for opening your homes or churches for these appointment settings. It's an amazing journey to go to each one and see the Lord at work, and that last retreat was a fitting close to retreat season.

Son Grace Music Ministries is now officially 25 years in existence. Please join us on Saturday, November 12, 2011 for the annual conference. It will be a day of celebration and thanksgiving to the Lord. Please mark your calendar now. It won't be complete without you!

Blessings to you all. You are loved and appreciated.

Letters & Emails of Praise to God

Dear Son Grace,

I had the privilege of attending my first SGMM in home Women's Retreat in Tulsa on April 9.

I woke that morning with a heart that was hurting and heavy and somewhat of a stubborn spirit. As I drove the short distance from my home to the destination of the retreat I kept thinking of all of the other things I could be doing today and I could feel my heart closing more and more.

Well, guess what the theme of the retreat was...OPEN HEART-OPEN HEAVEN!!! I had not gotten a flier so I didn't know the theme but God sure did and He knew that I sure needed to be there!

I arrived and was met in the driveway by my friend and our hostess Kathy Stoops. She enveloped me in her arms and I felt the love of the Lord. We walked into her home and the Holy Spirit was so strong and I heard the Lord say to me "Lean in on me I won't let you fall".

Sis Filese led us in worship that was so sweet that it took you right into the throne room of Heaven. It was so powerful! She then went on to teach us on what it means to be faith filled and on the three different heavens. We learned what closes the portals of Heaven like judgement, pride and disobedience.

The Lord showed himself so mightly to me as the day went forth. By the end of the day the walls of my heart had shattered and my spirit soared. Praise be to God!

Thank you, Kathy, for opening your lovely home and thank you, Filese, for listening to the call.

SGMM,

I attended a womens retreat at Karen Hauser's at the end of January. Theme was "Just Do It". Filese Hauser was the speaker, she did a wonderful job, bringing God's Word to us I really enjoy her retreats. Out of this message I learned that I need to spend more quality time with God. To take time and Just Do It!

Thanks for a wonderful time.

Be still and know I am God. Ps 46:10

Sister Filese,

ALL PRAISE AND GLORY BE TO GOD OUR FATHER. HIS PRECIOUS HOLY PRESENCE WAS SO PRESENT, at the retreat, held at Sister Linda's home in Rush Springs.

Sister Filese blessed us with, "When the wind blows." John 3:8. I believe all the ladies and myself received a deeper insight and revelation into both God's Spiritual Wind and His Natural wind: and the changes they can bring both in the spiritual realm and in the natural realm. When each occurs, nothing stays the same. She asked, how deep are your roots? Will they be able to stand when the storms of life come? WE must stay close to the Lord and stay watered.

Our mandate being YES and AMEN... to the Lord. I felt an urgency to be about the Lords work, as His return is imminent. I believe we received an impartation of Holy Spirit Fire and fresh oil.

Every ladies retreat I have attended has always been uplifting and strengthening. I encourage others to come.

Thank you Linda for sharing your home. Thank you Miranda for being the prayer warrior that you are. Thank you Filese for your obedience to the Lord. You are a blessing to us all.

Sis Helen

Filese ,

What can I say but wow, what a day! I have been to other events, retreats, but Saturday was special and different in so many ways. Linda Jarvis is always such a gracious and thoughtful hostess. Having a retreat AND caring for an ailing mother is so special. It makes me ashamed of not having anything at my house because the timing is never right. When will it be?

The words and the teaching of Filese were inspirational and thought provoking. I've always loved the wind, but I never realized how many ways the Bible refers to it. It was very interesting all the verses the girls came up with as we searched the scriptures and discussed it. Most of all, the thick presence of the Holy Spirit in that home.

His very presence made me want to slip to my knees and just cry" Holy is the Lord and greatly to be praised". So we prayed, we studied, we prayed with each other in pairs, we laughed, and sang, and finally the letter.

Writing a letter to myself to be delivered 6 months from now is like waiting for a special present. Truly the day was a blessing to all who attended, because everyone left with a smile. Thank you so much for that retreat from the everyday hustle and bustle of life.
Thank You.

Beth

SGMM,

Due to bad weather in February the retreat scheduled the first Saturday of February at Linda Jarvis' home in Rush Springs, OK was rescheduled for March 26, (with Filese Hauser/SGMM) and the retreat was well worth the wait. It is amazing how we take for granted the everyday, common things like the wind. The retreat caused us to refocus and open our eyes and notice how our wonderful God can use every day, and common things in our lives to make such a big impact. The retreat was truly a blessing. Everyone received a personal call to service and dedication.

After I came back home, I went out to walk my dog. As I walked down the drive, I noticed the wind blowing and I looked at it in a whole different way because of the retreat. What a wonderful time with the Lord and His teachings.

SGMM,

What a privilege it is to join our sisters in Christ for an entire day of studying God's Word, fellowship and also eating. ☺ It is a great opportunity to meet new ladies and make new friends. This year, the spring retreat met at Linda Jarvis home in Rush Springs, OK. Her home is always filled with such a sweet aroma of the Holy Spirit (this retreat was scheduled to be on the Women's Winter Retreat circuit for SGMM, the first of February and had to be re-scheduled because of bad weather and became the first Spring Women's Ministry Retreat for Son Grace.)

The subject (study theme) for this retreat was the Wind of the Holy Spirit, "Did Blow" taught by Filese. I will always remember the characteristics of the natural wind compared to the Spiritual Wind.

We all left that day having been refreshed by the "Wind" of the Holy Spirit.

SGMM,

Hello all, I just had the awesome privilege of attending the wonderful women's retreat "When the wind blows." at the home of my friend in Christ Linda Jarvis, on March 26th.

WOW what a blessing to be joined by her mother who just had surgery, but attended to share the strength and love of our LORD. I saw many new faces and enjoyed getting to spend time with my new friends, as well as some familiar faces. Miranda always such a sweet presence and Filese the extraordinary facilitator always shines.

I received so much from this retreat, just going over my notes made me realize how much. Let me share the scripture Acts 2:1- 4. "I came away with a new fresh desire for the LORD to blow thru me to increase His Kingdom." I am so glad I made this retreat which was rescheduled, but was right on time for me.

Thank you Jesus you are so good. Lisa D.

Filese,

Thank you for leading the Open Heaven retreat held at Lion's Gate, the name God has led us to call our home. SGMM has interceded for our family over the years and believed God for "such a time as this". It was exciting to share this "first of those yet to come" with Filese as they begin celebrating the 25th Anniversary of Son-Grace Music Ministry.

Kathy Stoops blowing the shofar

Filese was a blessing as God used and flowed through her that day. At the very beginning of our meeting she encouraged us to start out with open, receptive hearts by symbolically standing and raising outstretched hands to God. This was an individual choice and not something she pressured us to do...Little did she know that my "Life Logo" represents this very position before God...Living wide open to Him...Being Yielded...Saying "yes" to His will and His ways. I later discovered that Filese's teaching encompassed "Yes" & "Amen"...the 2 words God wants to hear from our lips. Filese said when we do this, we are giving God our highest worship...Our heart and our submission...And that was only the beginning!

At one point in her teaching, Filese said that we are all "Glory Carriers" and go into the situations His gives us like a big aircraft carrier and land...unloading the God-cargo we've been give. And that's just what she did! It was a powerful, memorable day in God's Presence as we opened ourselves up to the Open Heaven He has provided for us through Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

I am grateful to the women who shared that special day with us and for the new friendships that were made...God is truly amazing!

Thank you for coming and for allowing Jesus to be on display in your life!

Filese & John-

Thank you for being part of our meeting this past Sunday. The qualities of the meetings were excellent with the folks receiving your messages without reservation. I am amazed at the quality of ministry we received. I know the Lord must be pleased with both of you.

We hope you will return to our Church!!!!—
